

SLOVANSKY DUM, Na Prikope 22, Prague 1

Slovansky dum was built in the end of the 17th century as an Baroque palace with French garden. Many owners of the palace use it for commercial objects. Since 1873, it was owned by association Deutsches Kasino and the palace became one of the sought-after centre of social live in Prague. The palace was expensively reconstructed in 1997 and transformed to the commercial and entertaining centre in the heart of Prague. There are modern restaurants, bars, coffees, cinema, branded shops and various halls suitable for formal as well commercial use.

