

VRTBOVSKA GARDEN, Karmelitska, Prague 1

The Vrtbovska garden, a unique architectonic gem, is accessible from Karmelitska street at Mala Strana in Prague. The Vrtbovska garden, situated on the slopes of the Petrin hill, is one of the most important baroque gardens of Prague. This garden is designed according to plans of the architect F.M.Kanka. It is remarkable for its statues by Matthias Braun. Recently renovated, the garden was re-opened in May 1997.

